

Greek, Serbian and Montenegrin Personalities of Importance

STEPHANON
SKOULODIS, former Premier of Greece, charged with fomenting revolt in favor of Constantine.

GEN. DANGLIS,
Chief of Staff of the Greek Army in the offensive that broke Bulgarian resistance.

ELEUTHERIOS VENIZELOS, Premier of Greece and delegate to the Interallied and Peace Conferences.

KING NICHOLAS OF MONTE-NEGRO, virtual ruler since 1860 and King since 1910, now in exile.

GEN. RADOMIR PUTNIK, Commander in Chief of the Serbian Armies, who inflicted crushing defeats on Austria.

EX-QUEEN SOPHIA OF GREECE, sister of ex-Emperor Wilhelm of Germany, who shares her royal husband's exile.

KING ALEXANDER
of Greece, who became King June 12, 1917, when his father was forced to abdicate.

EX-KING CONSTANTINE of Greece, forced to abandon his throne June 12, 1917, because of his intrigues with Germany.